(2019) Online.Q: No jQuery animation with dataTables I'm using dataTables in my project and I would like to apply the animation function to the pager (to fade out the row after it is displayed). For that, I'm adding this piece of code at the end of the drawCallback:

$(".ui-widget-header").hide(); $(".ui-state-default").hide(); $("#dataTables-example tbody").fadeOut(100); $(".ui-widget-header").fadeOut(100);

It looks like the animation is working but the row disappear as soon as I move the mouse away from the table so I'm wondering if there is a way to have the animation work for the whole duration of the display of the table. I'm sure I'm missing something here, that's why I'm asking. A: You could just add: $("#dataTables-example tbody").fadeOut(100); to the end of your drawCallback() code, like so: function drawCallback() { $("#dataTables-example tbody").fadeOut(100); $(".ui-widget-header").hide(); $(".ui-state-default").hide(); } Q: Как вызвать класс, из которого была вызвана функция Есть метод которы◆
