Enjoy the endless possibilities of shapes, patterns and color combinations. Nothing ever looks the same as the next! Why should you learn to draw or paint? Drawing is the creative source of our life. If you look at the images of the world, mostly of the deep space of the Universe, you will find images created through different styles of painting and drawn by different cultures. We are in a world of drawings. If you are a professional artist or a creative person in any area of your life, you will understand how difficult is to provide pictures. How is that possible to combine shapes to make something unique, yet to look recognizable for others? In fact, we have forgotten to teach to our children that art is a way of expression that results from creativity. Without creativity, almost everything we do will have a sense of routine and will lack imagination. The images we create are unique and personal. We must pay attention to the artistic process and learn to 09e8f5149f
