Lately, I've found in a text: Birds are not tigers,... is like a tiger,... What does this sentence mean? A: "Like" (a noun) means "the same as" in this context. In this case, it is being used as a possessive: "the same way a tiger would behave." "That bird" is "a tiger" (the person would talk about a real tiger); "like a tiger" means the same thing as "the same as a tiger" would mean.
