Netchat is a free, easy to use instant messaging application which allows you to chat with several people on your local network. Developer: Michael Haller Web: Free Download: A 4DX theater experience is a movie theater that has an additional moving seat in the back row of the theater that moves in sync with the action on the screen. This ensures that the 3D visuals create a more immersive, awe-inspiring and true-to-life movie experience for you. The first time we had this movie theater experience we were pretty nervous as the experience was brand new. Thankfully, after a few experiences with this technology we felt more confident that the whole experience was in fact not only a cool experience, but also safe to watch. A fun addition to the movie experience we found it more comfortable to be up close to the screen, and we liked how we could experience the movie with the character more than we could if sitting by ourselves. As a self-proclaimed movie addict, I think this technology is a great experience and definitely has its place for the most adventurous movie buffs out there. On screen features The premise is that the young Batman has discovered that the Joker is planning to take over Gotham City and take over the USA as he is trying to bring down an oil rig and blame it on you, when all along it was in fact the other way around. Here is my review of the movie: The 4DX movie theater experience is now being offered to all in the US. The new 4DX movie theater was first unveiled at the Cannes Film Festival where it debuted to the public. On screen features This new technology is designed to make the 3D effects and movies even more amazing and believable. You will be able to feel the shaking on the seat beside you as well as the vibration and wind in your hair. This is the first time we have seen anything like this that's more of a feeling than just a movie or movie experience. This is the technology that allows you to experience the movie just like you're watching a real movie. Cons During this technology it can be pretty loud. I'm sure we will get used to it eventually, but for the first time we had this technology we were a little nervous at first. It has a tendency to get
